INTRODUCTION AND REFERENCE OF RESOLUTIONS

Read and referred:

Assembly Resolution 23

Requesting the President to reconsider the actions of his administration in attempting to prevent further publication by the New York Times of the McNamara report.

Whereas, freedom of the press and the right of the American people to know what the national government is doing are precious American traditions vital to the continuing process of democracy; and

Whereas, the New York Times is performing a public service in the finest traditions of the duty and responsibility of the press to inform the public by publishing excerpts from and analysis of the McNamara report dealing with the involvement of this nation in hostilities in Southeast Asia; and

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [June 24, 1971]

Whereas, the Nixon administration is setting a most dangerous precedent in attempting to restrict the right of the American people to know about the actions of their government; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, That the New York Times is commended and supported for its publication of these documents and President Richard M. Nixon is requested to instruct all officials of his administration to cease and desist in their efforts to prevent further publication by the New York Times of the McNamara report; and, be it further

Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution be transmitted forthwith to the President of the United States, the editor of the New York Times and to each member of the congressional delegation from Wisconsin.
